

TEI Header Cheat Sheet

Element	Description
<acquisition>	When and how the manuscript entered the collection. Use @when.
<country>	The country of origin or repository.
<email>	Contact email for the institution or department.
<explicit>	Closing words of a manuscript item.
<idno>	A unique identifier (e.g. shelf mark, catalogue number). Use @type.
<incipit>	The opening words of a text or manuscript item.
<institution>	Name of the institution.
<msContents>	Containing element for details of the contents of the manuscript.
<msDesc>	Containing element for the description of a manuscript.
<msIdentifier>	Groups information about where the manuscript is held.
<msItem>	A single text or item within the manuscript.
<note>	General note about a manuscript or manuscript item.
<objectDesc>	Describes the physical form of the manuscript.
<orgName>	Organisation name. Use @type for department, unit, or institution.
<origDate>	Date of the manuscript's production. Use @when or @notBefore and @notAfter.
<origin>	Describes the manuscript's origin (place and date).
<persName>	Name of a person (e.g. cataloguer).
<physDesc>	Physical description (material, foliation, decoration).
<provenance>	History of manuscript ownership.
<publicationStmt>	Containing element for information about a record's publication.
<publisher>	The organisation publishing the record.
<region>	County or administrative region.
<repository>	The specific library or archive holding the manuscript.
<resp>	The role or responsibility (e.g. "Cataloguer").
<respStmt>	Containing element for a person's responsibility and name.
<rubric>	A rubric or title in the source, typically in red ink.
<settlement>	The city or town where the repository is located.
<sourceDesc>	Containing element for description of the source.
<support>	Material used (e.g. parchment, paper). Use @material.
<supportDesc>	Details about the manuscript's writing support.
<teiHeader>	Containing element for all metadata about the TEI document.
<textLang>	Language of the manuscript. Use @mainLang="la" for Latin.
<title>	Title of the manuscript or manuscript item.
<titleStmt>	Containing element for titles and responsible people.

For further details, including on elements and attributes not listed here, see the full TEI guidelines at: <https://tei-c.org/release/doc/tei-p5-doc/en/html/index.html>